

Sally Batstone

Professional Development Bursary

We can help you continue to grow professionally in the field of Volunteer Administration.

If you are looking for financial assistance to attend courses, workshops or conferences, you could be eligible for financial assistance from The Sally Batstone Professional Development Bursary!

If you meet the criteria set out below, apply today!

Criteria:

1. Minimum of one year experience in the field (paid or unpaid)
2. Current member of OAVR in good standing for a minimum of 1 year
3. Willingness to share results of education / research with other members

Applications included in newsletters and on www.oavr.ca

Please note: Fund covers registration fee only and does not include incidental or travel costs.